

YOU SHALL LOVE

You shall love the Lord your God
with all your heart, with all your mind, with all your being.
I take these words which You command to me this day
upon my heart.
I'll teach them faithfully to my children
when I'm home and when I'm away,
when I rise up and when I lie down.
I'll bind them as a sign upon my hand,
let them be a symbol before my eyes,
inscribe them on the doorposts of my house and on my gates.
I'll be mindful of Your mitzvot and do them.
So shall I consecrate myself to You
Who calls me forth from Egypt to be my God.
